Knitting over the summer.

If you are interested in helping out with shipping costs of baby caps to Save the Children please contact Sue Rooks at srooks@savethechildren.ca. The Massey Centre for Women is happy to receive any knitted or crocheted baby clothes in all sizes up to 18 months. If you would like some simple patterns, please call Marilyn Piotrowski 416 489-6217. Donations of wool are available for use in a basket above the coat rack by the Hearth Room. Help yourself.

Lay Ministry Opportunities at Eglinton St. George's

Thanks to everyone for your wonderful contribution to the life of Eglinton St. George's over the past year. Thanks to those who continue to serve through the summer months. Hope you all have a renewing and wonder-filled summer. There will be many opportunities to participate in the life and ministry of the congregation in the coming year. Please take time this summer to discern where you would like to put your energy and creativity. We look forward to seeing you in September.

Wondering what to do this summer that's fun and uplifting? The United Church is having a "vacation conference" in North Bay at the University of Nipissing, that has inspirational speakers, interesting workshops, fun entertainment (including Mary Lou Fallis, a sunset cruise, and more) and is very reasonably priced. Deborah Hart attended in 2005 and is going again this year. It's entitled "For Such a Season" and held August 8-12th. See the bulletin board by the Welcome Desk or talk to Deborah for more details.

THE STOP

Thank you for bringing non-perishable food for THE STOP. Our monthly donations are very much appreciated.

The next collection date is July 1st. Please leave your donations in the bins provided. Thanks, Marg Anglin

GREEN TIPS

Don't Bug the Planet! Toxic pesticides are bad for your family and the environment. Plain soapy water will kill most outdoor bugs.
